Dear Sid:

Attached is a copy of the receipt and invoice on which Thompson Ramo Wooldridge, Inc. billed us for an airline ticket from New York to Los Angeles for [redacted] on 1 July 1960 under Contract A-104.

25X1A

The July Certificate of Service shows that he left his post of duty [redacted] on 30 June 1960, but it does not authorize commercial carrier travel for the trip to Los Angeles. It does, however, approve comair for the return from Los Angeles to [redacted] on 24 through 29 July. Perhaps [redacted] traveled MATS from [redacted] to New York, and then commercial air from New York to Los Angeles. (At least so the attached copy of the ticket indicates.)

We have suspended payment in the amount of $176.25 on this ticket until we have received your written approval

Very truly yours,

Doug ^{SHSLD}
